Dear Mr. Murray:

Thank you for your support of Junior Achievement. Your investment will contribute to teaching students about the realities and opportunities of our American Free Enterprise System. Junior Achievement is volunteer driven through the partnership of passionate role models who teach kids how business works.

Junior Achievement is honored that you have chosen to make a gift toward the advancement of our programs. Your concern to provide leadership will help Junior Achievement programs reach thousands of children this year, and that is a really good deal for our kids and our community.

Once more, on behalf of our Board of Directors and the students in your community who benefit from participation in Junior Achievement programs, thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Barbara
