

We're holding a Class of 2010 blanket
just for you Mr. Murray.
But hurry! Quantities are limited.

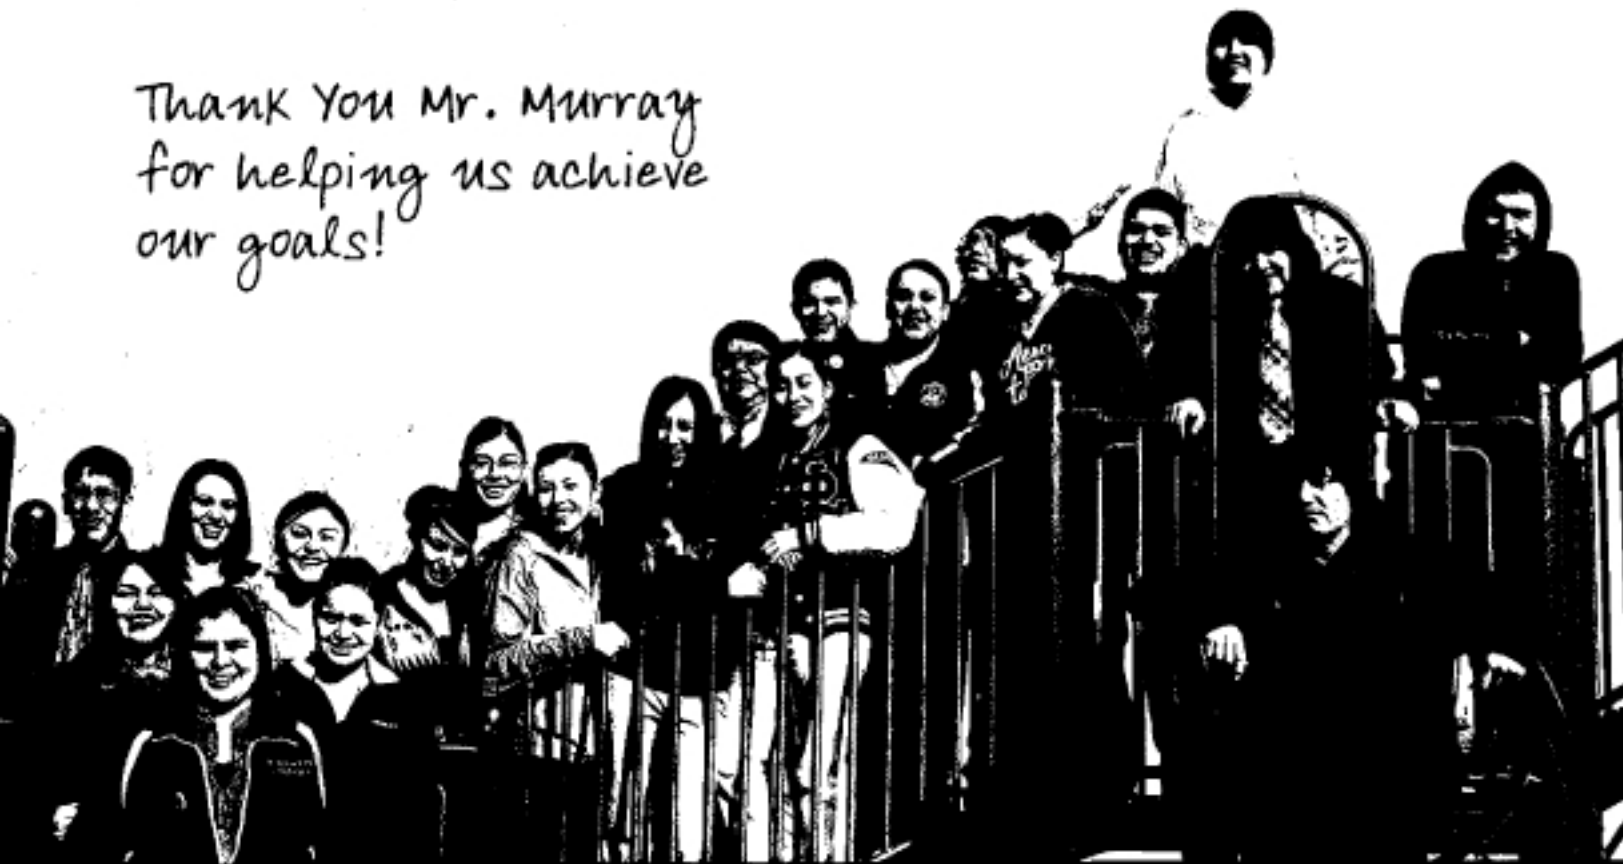

Dear Mr. Murray,
We're tipping our caps to you because without you and St. Labre, our future would not be as bright and promising. That's why we want to send you our Class of 2010 blanket for your gift of $20 or more!

Thank you!
St. Labre Class of 2010.

Thank You Mr. Murray
for helping us achieve our goals!

ST. LABRE CLASS OF 2010

GET YOUR CLASS OF 2010 BLANKET TODAY!

To thank you for your generosity, let us send you this brilliant, polar fleece blanket as our gift in appreciation for your continued support. It measures 41" x 61" with decorative hem stitch on all sides and is completely machine washable. Your blanket is emblazoned with the St. Labre school colors of purple and gold and is light enough for use year-round.

Your tax-deductible contributions provide food, clothing, and shelter for hundreds of Northern Cheyenne and Crow children who live and attend school at St. Labre. Your generosity also provides scholarships so that these children may attend college after graduating from St. Labre.

Thank you for helping to keep the "miracle" of St. Labre alive.
Congratulations Class of 2010!

St. Labre Indian School
www.stlabre.org